ECLIPSES—1829.

There will be four Eclipses this year, two of the Sun, and two of the Moon, in the following order, viz :

I. The first will be of the Moon, March 20th, 9h. 15m. in the morning, of course invisible to us.

II. The second will be of the Sun, April 3d, 5h. 37m. in the evening, but invisible in the United States, on account of the Moon's southern latitude.—Moon's lat. 35° S.

III. The third is of the Moon, the 13th day of September, and visible as follows :

Beginning	· · · · ·	0h. 41m.	Appear.
Middle	· · · · ·	1 53
End	· · · · ·	3 5

Digits eclipsed 6° 5' on the Moon's S. Limb.

IV. The fourth will be of the Sun, September 27th, 9h. 19m. in the evening, and invisible. Moon's lat. 34° N. This will be a large eclipse in North Pacific Ocean.

The Convention of the Congregational Ministers in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Is a voluntary Association, embracing all the Congregational Clergy of the Commonwealth, but vested with no particular authority or control over the churches.

Their meeting is holden in Boston, in the afternoon of the last Wednesday in May, or day of Election annually, at five, P. M. and the following day at eleven, A. M. After transacting the usual business of the Convention, a sermon is delivered in public before them, and a collection made for the charitable purpose of relieving the indigent Widows of Congregational Clergymen.

Difficulties having often arisen in determining, what widows are the proper objects of the charity of this Convention, it was voted, June 1, 1815, That a Standing Committee be appointed, five of whom shall be chosen centrally, and the remainder in different parts of the State. The five, with the Scribe and Treasurer, shall act as a Reporting Committee, to receive from the other Members of the Committee applications and statements of facts in behalf of persons who may be subjects of the charity of the Convention; and having considered the same, shall judge of the persons to be relieved, and the proportion to be given to each, and make report to the Convention, on the first day of their meeting annually; further, that the names of said Committee shall be annually published in the Massachusetts Register.

STANDING COMMITTEE.

Accordingly, when the widow of any Congregational Clergyman is considered an object of the charity of the Convention, it is desired that answers to the following questions be given by one of the Standing Committee, by the first of May in each year, to be communicated to the Reporting Committee, that they may possess the documents for making a correct report to the Convention.

1. What is her age?
2. What are the number, the sex, the ages, and the circumstances of her children?
3. What is a fair estimate of her property?
4. What is her ability to help herself?
5. What connexions has she, who are bound to afford her assistance? And in what way do they assist her?
6. What is her income?
7. What peculiar circumstances render her an object of charity; or make it desirable, that she should have aid this year?

The Standing Committee are also desired to give notice to the Scribe, whenever an alteration takes place in the circumstances of the widows, who are objects of charity.

Rev. Nathaniel L. Frothingham, of Boston, Treasurer.

Rev. John Codman, of Dorchester, Scribe of the Convention.

Rev. Dr. Beecher, first Preacher.

Rev. Dr. Humphrey, second Preacher.

The Convention earnestly recommend to all young gentlemen who design to devote themselves to the work of the ministry, to spend that portion of time in the study of divinity, which learned and judicious advisers shall think necessary to qualify them for public teachers.

General Association in Massachusetts.

This body was organized in June 1805. In 1814, it consisted of Delegates from 12 Associations in Massachusetts Proper. Its members "admit, as articles of faith, the doctrines of Christianity, as they are generally expressed in the Assembly's Shorter Catechism," and consider these doctrines, which have been generally embraced by the churches of New-England, as the "basis of their union." This body wholly disclaims ecclesiastical power or authority over the Churches, or the opinions of individuals. The essential objects, as expressed in their Constitution, are "to promote brotherly intercourse and harmony, and their mutual animation, assistance, and usefulness as ministers of Christ."

 Annual meetings last Tuesday in June.

Columbia College, in New-York City.

This College was originally founded by Royal Charter, in the year 1754, under the name of King's College, by which title it continued to be known until the period of the Revolution. During the interval which elapsed between the years 1776 and 1784, the business of instruction was necessarily suspended. Upon the restoration of public tranquillity, certain individuals were appointed by the Legislature, May 1, 1784, to superintend the general interests of education throughout the State, under the title of Regents of the University. On the 13th of April, 1787, an act was passed, by which the original charter of the College was confirmed, and the name of the Institution altered to Columbia College.

The next Annual Meeting of the Society will take place during the week of General Election, in Boston, in May 1829. The members of this Society amount to about 400, reside in 20 different States, and belong to five denominations of Christians. The executive business of the Society is committed to a Board of 13 Directors, chosen annually, who meet, regularly, on the second Wednesday of Jan., April, July, and October, and oftener, if necessary. About 700 individuals have been in a greater or less degree, assisted by its funds. Not far from 300 are now under its patronage. The young men, who have been aided belong to five denominations of Christians; they are natives of 20 States or Territories; and they have pursued their studies at as many Colleges, and at more than 40 other Literary Institutions.

INLAND BILLS OF EXCHANGE.

By a Law of the Commonwealth, passed June 19, 1819, when any Bill drawn or endorsed within the State, payable at any place without the State and within the United States or Territories, being duly presented, shall not be accepted or paid according to its terms, and shall be regularly protested, every Drawer or Endorser, within the Commonwealth, liable by law, shall in addition to the contents, costs and lawful interest, pay damages as follows, viz.—Upon all Bills payable within either of the New-England States, or New-York, three per cent. on the amount,—within New-Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, or District of Columbia, five per cent.—within North or South Carolina or Georgia, six per cent.—within any other State or Territory, nine per cent. And when any such Bill for $100 or upwards, payable at any place within the State, distant 75 miles or more, from the place of drawing or endorsing, shall be regularly protested, every Drawer or Endorser, liable by law, shall pay one per cent. on the amount, in addition to contents, costs, and lawful interest.

AN ACT to allow grace on Bills of Exchange and Notes, according to the custom of Merchants.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, That on all Bills of Exchange made, after the first day of June next, and expressed to be payable at sight or payable at a future day certain within this Commonwealth, and on all promissory negotiable notes, orders and drafts made after the first day of June next, payable at a future day certain within this Commonwealth, in which there is not an express stipulation to the contrary, grace shall be allowed in the same manner as it is by the custom of merchants allowed on foreign Bills of Exchange payable at the expiration of a certain period from date or sight. Provided that the provisions of this act shall not extend to any Bills of Exchange, note, order or draft payable on demand.

Approved by the Lieut. Governor, Feb. 26, 1825.

All merchandize shipped off the wharf, to pay the same rate of wharfage as for landing, without regard to the time of landing.

No articles of any kind whatever put upon the wharf are to be considered as entitled to remain there any longer time than the wharfinger shall consent to, and always subject to be removed at the expense of the owners.

Goods taken in lighters, or otherwise by water from on board any vessel lying at the wharf, or goods taken from lighters or otherwise, by water on board any vessel lying at the wharf, to pay one half as much as for landing ; the said half wharfage to be paid by the vessel lying at the wharf.

The wharfage of goods landed, to be paid by the seller, or person landing the same, except wood and lumber, which is to be paid by the purchaser.

Goods received from, or loaded on board of coasters to be paid for by the captains of coasters ; unless the same are shipped or received by persons belonging to Boston, and a return thereof to be made by the master of the coaster to the wharfinger.

Goods brought on the wharf, by trucks or otherwise, for public sale, to pay the same wharfage, as if landed thereon.

Vessels hauling to the wharf, are expected to have their jibs, spanker booms, and spritsail yards rigged in; and on the north side, to have their yards topped, and to accommodate other vessels as much as possible.

No boats are to be put on the wharf; nor sand, gravel, or other ballast, to be landed, without permission of the wharfinger; nor are the dirt or sweepings of the hold, or other articles which do not float, under any pretence whatever, to be thrown into the dock.

No fire is allowed to be kept on board any vessel lying at the north side of the wharf, above the T.
